George Eliot's Poetry.

George Eliot's metrical work has special interest, coming from a woman acknowledged to be, in her realistic yet imaginative prose, at the head of living female writers. Sae has brought all her energies to bear, first upon the construction of the drama, which was only a success d'estline, and recently upon a new volume containing "The Legend of Juhai" and other poems. The result shows plainly that Mrs. Lewes though possessed of great intellect and sensibility, is not, in respect to metrical expression, a poet. Nor has she a full conception of the simple strength and melody of English verse, her polysyllabic language, noticeable in the moralizing passages of "Middlemarch," being very ineffective in her poems. That wealth of thought which atones for all her deficiencies in prose does not seem to be at her command in poetry. "The Spanish Gypsy" reads like a secondate production of the Byronic school. "The Legend of Juhai" and "How Liss loved the King" suffer by comparison with the narrative poems, in rymed pentameter, of Morris, Longfellow, or Stoddard. A little poem in blank verse, entitled "O may I join the choir invisible!" and setting forth her conception of the "religion of humanity," is worth all the George Eliot's metrical work has speand setting forth her conception of the "religion of humanity," is worth all the rest of her poetry, for it is the outburst of an exalted soul, foregoing personal immortality and compensated by a vir sion of the growth and happiness of the human race.—E. C. Stefance, "When human race.—E. C. Stedman's "Minor Victorian Poets;" Scribner for September.

Mr. Dickinson suffered intensely, notwithstanding he had the best surgical aid. Everyhing was done that science could suggest, and is the last remedy the knife used, and yet he ised in great anguish on the third say. This is a fearful warning to those who are ruptured.

RUPTURE-HOW CURED. MR. GEORGE E. EAKINGS, OF PRILADELPHIA, WRITES THE FOLLOWING INTERESTING PAR-TICULARS:

WRITES THE FOLLOWING INTERESTING PARTICULARS:

To the Editor of the New York Sun:
Sira—For several years I was afflicted with repture and suffered from the use of trusces. Casually noticing in your paper a recommendation of Dr. Sherman of your city, and about the same time meeting Mr. J. W. Ayres, of Camden, N. J., who informed that he had been a victim to rapture and was cured by Dr. Sherman's treatment, I felt animated and went straightway to New York, consulted Dr. Sherman as the same of th

GEO. E. EAKINGS, 1,031 Palmer st. Philadelphia, March 24, 1875.

We cheerfully publish the foregoing commu-nication, believing it may result in benealt to come one. Mr. Eakings is a sufferior to The Sus and a reliable gentleman. His statement will doubtless reach many sufferers who will, with our rouching for its trutninges, have cause to teel as grateful toward him as he now feels toward Dr. Sherman.

The foregoing remarks from the New York Sun must be cheering to those who are rup-

The foregoing remarks from the New York Sun must be cheering to those who are ruptured.

The cure is effected by Dr. SHERMAN'S method without any operation, simply by external local apptications, both mechanical and medicinal, usade daily by the patient, who, while under treatment, can perform any kind of labor, or take the most active exercise with perfect security from dangers or inflamed and strangulated rupture, without the suffering and injury caused by the use of trusses, and without interfering with the progress of care.

Dr. Sherman's office, Park Row, corner Ansistrest, New York City. Consultation free Terms monterate. Persons from the country can receive treatment and return for home samiday. Descriptive book mailed for 18 cents.
